

Chief Juvenile Probation Officer

Superior Court of Arizona in Maricopa County
Phoenix, Arizona

This executive level, at-will position works under the general policy direction of the Presiding Judge and Juvenile Court Presiding Judge, and the immediate supervision of the Court Administrator. The ideal candidate for the position of Chief Juvenile Probation Officer must have outstanding leadership, communication, and interpersonal qualities that will bring strength, stability, and credibility to the position and programs, as well as contributing strong management to the Department staff and fiscal accountability for overall operations with approximately 700 full-time employees and operating budget of more than $59 million. The successful candidate will be an innovative thinker and creative problem solver, able to contribute to the range of evidence-based juvenile, preventative, and restorative justice models incorporated by the Department. A Bachelor's degree is required plus a minimum of ten (10) years of progressively responsible experience working in the juvenile justice system, which could include probation, corrections, or family programs. A Master's degree is preferred. The annual salary range for this position is up to $156,249 and includes the use of a County vehicle and a comprehensive benefits package. Apply immediately. This position is open until filled with a first review date of January 16, 2012 Detailed brochure available at www.ralphandersen.com. Confidential inquiries encouraged to Mr. Robert Burg and Heather Renschler at (916) 630-4900. To apply for this position, send resume, cover letter, references and salary history via email to apply@ralphandersen.com.